FRIDAY MORNING.....MAY 31, 1861.

Notice to Daily Subscribers in the Country.

It is useless, perhaps, to repeat it; but, henceforth, no paper in affairs will be forwarded. It will be stopped to the day. It is impossible for us to continue to those careles of their accounts.

Those who fail to receive their paper hereafter, upon taking the trouble to ascertain, will find that their subscriptions are in arrears.

CITY COURT.—Thursday, May 23.—Dennis Frederine, drunk and disorderly; ball in $100 for two months. Patrick Stintz and Michael Riley, who have always been on very good terms, got drunk, and then to fighting and cutting. They thought the best way to settle the difficulty was to bring it before Judge Johnston. The Judge decided that both should give bonds in fifty dollars each to answer a misdemeanor. Mike Gallagher, drunk; ball in $100 for two months. David Dovoto, stealing goods from Dodge & Dots, was held to ball in $500 to answer. A. Dovoto, receiving stolen goods, knowing them to be stolen, was held to ball in $600 to answer.

On market, between Third and Fourth, they are giving away good ambrosia, and selling cassas and frames very cheap. Go and see for yourselves.

THE MILITARY BILL APPROPRIATING $1,000,000 FOR ARMING THE STATE WAS PASSED YESTERDAY. The Legislature will adjourn to day. The bill was passed by 70 to 14.

A lad jumping on an omnibus, yesterday afternoon, put his hand on the spring and had three fingers smashed off. This may serve as a warning to boys, generally, who are in the habit of jumping on their vehicles while in motion.

Twelve additional night watchmen have been appointed by the Mayor and Marshal in New Albany, and they will likely go into service to-night. There are now twenty-four watchmen to guard the property of our citizens, and it is expected to be well done, says the Ledger.

Major Stephens S. Tucker, who fought for the independence of Texas, fought in the war with Mexico, and was also in Nicaragua with Walker, died at Fort Morgan, near Mobile, on Wednesday. He was, at the time of his death, a Major in the Confederate Army.

A little girl, by the name of Van, was accidentally shot in the head and killed a short distance below Evansville on Sunday, by a gun in the hands of a man named Robinson, who was shooting at a hawk about 260 yards distant, the girl being in direct range of the two.

ISSUE NO. 280.—Held on College street, between First and Second, over the body of Ann Brophy, aged about 35 years, of Irish nativity, wife of —— Brophy, and mother of four children. Verdict: "Came to her death, suddenly, on the night of the 22d last, from inattention and exposure" J. M. BUCHANAN, Coroner.

CITY COUNCIL AND BOARD OF ALBEDER. Both Boards were in session last night, and, up to a very late hour, but little of great importance to our readers had been acted upon. The Council passed an ordinance requiring the Home Guard to take an oath binding themselves to act as a voluntary police.

MILITARY GOODS.—Mr. Henry Deppen, No. 607 Main street, has a good supply of gray cloths, cassass, flannels, and all kind of military goods, which he offers at very low prices. He is also prepared to make up suits for the military at the very shortest notice. Mr. Deppen is an old merchant tailor, in good standing, and can be relied upon.

COURTS IN ARKANSAS.—The Little Rock Gazette says that from all portions of the State advice in relation to the coming crop are of the most promising character. The wheat crop is the greatest in breadth, and the most superior in quality ever made in the State, and the fruit promises an abundant yield, while the oats and corn thus far look exceedingly well.

BERGER, the famous billiard player, is in this city. He is stopping at the Galt House. He could not well stop elsewhere, for there are few houses in the city big enough to contain his huge proportions. He is a great man in more than one sense. We see by the Cincinnati paper of yesterday that Phil. Tamm left this city yesterday to meet Berger, and accompany him to Porkopolis.

THEATRE.—Miss Rainforth's benefit was not so successful as we had anticipated. The performance of Rolla, by an amateur, put the audience in a fine humor, and served to make the evening very agreeably. Mrs. Dickson's song, and Mrs. Graham's dance were enthusiastically enjoyed. To-night, the plays are the Deserter and the Little Treasure. As this is Friday, we may safely predict a good house.

WOODLAND RACES.—Yesterday was one of the most lovely days of the season, and the attraction at beautiful Woodland drew a large concourse of people. The attendance was better than any day during the week. Quite a number of ladies graced the occasion with their pleasant smiles and beautiful countenances. The race was for a purse of $300, mile heats, for all ages, best three in five. There were four entries—Idlewild, Lucy Fowler, Pope Swigert, and Keen Richards' boy Bill. The track was in excellent condition, and the horses looked in fine spirits.

At the top of the drum they dashed off in fine style, Lucy Fowler taking the lead, and retained her position till near the half mile station, when she was passed by Idlewild, who, while Pope Swigert only played to save her distance, and Richards' entry fell far behind, came home as easy winner, by two lengths, in 1:40.

The other two heats were but repetitions of the same, Idlewild winning in each, under a strong pull, in 1:47 and 1:44. Pope Swigert beat the black mare in the second, and considerable money was wagered that he would lead her in the third, which he did with ease.

SUMMARY. W. H. Elliott, manager of H. Marion's 6th Inf'ty, 1st Regt., Kentucky, 1st Division, 45 years old, by Arthur, died in Louisville, Kentucky, on May 22, 1861. He was a native of Ohio, and a graduate of the University of Ohio. He was a member of the Imported Trandy, and a member of the Imported Kentucky, and a member of the Imported Kentucky. He died in Louisville, Kentucky, on May 22, 1861.

The race to day is a sweepstakes for three years old, two mile heats, for the Galt House stakes. There are five to start, consisting of Sisi, Vassie, Vignette, Lilly Ward, an entry of J.A. Baird, probably West Australian colt, and one by A. Alexander. Lilly Ward is in the favorite, and only slight odds are offered by the field against her.

THE WICKER'S LAST.—When the Wicks heard the gratifying intelligence that no person had been killed or wounded at the destruction of Fort Sumpter, he exclaimed, with a tremendous ggle, "Why, it was quite a piano-forte affair!" What on earth this means nobody knows.—Punch.

News from the Camp

Carrollton, May 22.

Missa. Hanes, Army & Navy, 18th Inf'ty, 1st Regt., Kentucky, 1st Division, 45 years old, by Arthur, died in Louisville, Kentucky, on May 22, 1861. He was a native of Ohio, and a graduate of the University of Ohio. He was a member of the Imported Trandy, and a member of the Imported Kentucky, and a member of the Imported Kentucky. He died in Louisville, Kentucky, on May 22, 1861.

The camp is beautifully situated on the second bank overlooking old Salt river, on which it trends. On the left is the line of rear regiments. After our tents were put up, we were 4, as may be imagined, felt rather hungry, and a general rush was made for the Quartermaster's quarters.

There were Quartermasters Lyons and Gray, and Commissary Vacant. Shaw, our cook, was 4, and the other 4, who are rear regiments, and in our left the line of the salient. After our tents were put up, we were 4, as may be imagined, felt rather hungry, and a general rush was made for the Quartermaster's quarters.

Mr. Pratt offered the following resolution, which passed:

RESOLVED, By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That in order that the next Legislature may be fully advised as to the will of the people of Kentucky, a poll shall be opened in the various precincts at the election to be held on the first Monday in November, for the election of two colonels, one of which shall be elected "For the Secession of Kentucky," and the other "Against the Secession of Kentucky," and the votes of the State shall be recorded as they shall then be taken, and the laws applicable to general elections shall be in full force in relation to the election to be thus held, and it shall be the duty of the Governor to communicate the result of said vote to the General Assembly, which shall meet next month.

Let us give way to Mr. Root to bring in a bill for the benefit of the Adjutant General and the Quartermaster-General. Referred to Military Committee.

And then the Senate took a recess until three o'clock.

House Prayer by the Rev. John N. Norton, of the Episcopal Church.

The reading of the journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

Mr. Leach—A bill for the benefit of the town of Newcastle. Passed.

Mr. Buckner offered the following joint resolution:

RESOLVED, By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That when it adjourns on Friday, the 24th of this month, it shall be to the 15th of July next, and that the Committee on Federal Relations be directed to call a special session of the Legislature under the resolution of inquiry as to the introduction of arms, &c., into this State, and other subjects referred to in his resolution.

Mr. Machen offered the following as a substitute for Mr. Buckner's resolution:

RESOLVED, That the Committee on Federal Relations have left to sit after the adjournment of the Legislature, until the subjects embraced in the resolutions are fully investigated, and then their proceedings shall be referred to the General Assembly for publication.

Mr. Judge moved the previous question.

After some discussion, in which Messrs. Buckner, MacKen, Hodge, Underwood, Rollman, Ratcliff and Finn took part,

Mr. Finn moved to lay the bill and substitute on the table. Rejected—yeas 42, nays 18.

Mr. Buckner moved to postpone the consideration of the resolutions until to-morrow at ten minutes past ten o'clock.

Mr. Goodloe opposed the postponement, and was referred to Mr. Goodloe, and adjourned the postponed.

Mr. Cleveland moved the previous question.

After some discussion, then taken on Mr. MacKen's substitute for Mr. Buckner's resolution, and it was rejected by yeas 42, nays 18.

The vote was then taken on the adoption of Mr. Buckner's resolution, and it was decided in the negative by yeas 25, nays 18.

The House then took up the Senate bill changing the time of the meeting of the General Assembly from the 1st Monday in December, 1861, to the 1st Monday in January.

Mr. Buckner moved the previous question.

The bill was then passed. Yeas 42, nays 18.
